

 Bald Eagle Juvenile eagles have dark brown and some white feathers covering most of their body. Their eyes and beak are also darker in color. They get their white head and tail when they are 5 years old.	Osprey 	Red-tailed Hawk   Juvenile red tails don't have a red tail the first year.
Red-Shouldered Hawk 	Barred Owl 	Great Horned Owl
Eastern Screech Owl   	American Kestrel   Male Female	Coopers Hawk Juvenile Coopers are brown not grey-blue. Their chest is streaked with small spots.

Swallow-tailed Kite 	Mississippi Kite 	Burrowing Owl
Black Vulture  	Turkey Vulture 	Barn Owl
Peregrine Falcon   Juvenile Adult	Merlin 	Crested Caracara

Golden Eagle

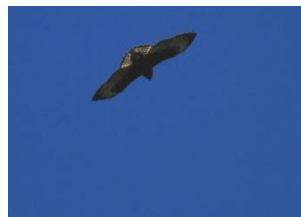

Sharp-shinned Hawk

Northern Harrier

Snail Kite

Short-tailed Hawk

There is both a dark and a light morph.

Broad-winged Hawk

